

CALLED TO WITNESS: ALL MEANS ALL
Learning to Tell Our Reconciling Stories in the Church

“So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.” (II Corinthians 5:17-18).

LGBT persons and the church are both experiencing a crisis of understanding. Neither side knows what to do with the other. What will happen next?

On Valentine’s Day, February 14, 2009, Grace For All in cooperation with Reconciling Ministries Network invites you to learn how to tell your story of the challenges, choices, and outcomes you have experienced as the church struggles to be the inclusive community God calls us to be.

Sean Delmore, an RMN Regional Trainer, will guide an interactive experience in which you will learn to focus your story to establish a connection with another person.

When you tell your story well, it evokes a story in response.

We will gather at Wesley United Methodist church, 209 South State Street, Dover, Delaware.

Plan to arrive for coffee at 9:30 am – The workshop begins promptly at 10:00 am.

Your $15 registration includes materials, lunch and refreshments. We will conclude at 4:00 pm.

What better way to spread the love of God on Valentine’s Day?

You may register by completing and mailing the form below to:

Grace For All, P.O. Box 1006 Wilmington, DE 19899-1006

Please make your check payable to Grace For All, designating “All Means All” in the memo.

Or you may phone or e-mail your registration to Sandra Cox, Registrar (302-584-3427 or sandraecox@aol.com), and pay by cash or check on the day of the event.

Contact Sandra Cox or the Rev. Derrick Porter (302-764-2824) for more information.

Early registrations will help us prepare for this wonderful gathering. We would like to have registrations by Monday, February 2, 2009, but late registrations will be accepted. See you there!
